BLOOMFIELD, NEW JERSEY

April 30-1948

Dear Mrs. Beeken:

I presume this is too late to be of any help to you but here it is.

I am enclosing samples of some Calendars

We have a total of 202 on our Honor Roll with 2 to be added of whom I did not know until recently.

We kept in close touch with our Men and women by letters and the Reader's Digest was sent two years, Parcels one year Testaments and also one of Dr. Fosdick's books.

Five paid the supreme sacrifice.

They served in all branches of the Service.

With sincere regret that I have been unable to get this to you earlier. and all good wishes.

all good

Yours sincerely,

James G. Marshall

ANTHEM—"Lord, Lead Us Still"

arr. by Brahms

Along the varied paths of life, Through hours of joy and sorrow keen, In grim temptation's mortal strife, In doubt or confidence serene, Lord, lead us still. Through all the changes of the years, What-e'er of good or ill betide, in laughter gay or bitter tears, O keep us ever at Thy side; Lord, lead us still. And when at last the tale is told, The victory won by Thy good grace, May we Thy glory, Lord, behold, In that blest Home-land see Thy face; Lord, lead us still, O lead us still.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM—"The Heavens Are Declaring"

Beethoven

The heavens are declaring the Lord's endless glory, Thro' all the earth his praise is found. The seas reecho the marvellous story. O man, repeat that glorious sound. The starry host He orders and measures, He fills the morning's golden springs; He wakes the sun from his night curtained slumbers, Oh, man adore the King of Kings. What power and splendor, and wisdom and order, In Nature's mighty plan unrolled! Thro' space and time to infinity's border. What wonders vast and manifold. The earth is His, and the heav'ns o'er it bending The Maker in his works behold! He is, and will be, Thro' ages unending, A God of strength and love untold.
